

Conflict of Interest Statement

All members of Impact 100 Chicago must insure that no personal or professional self-interest interferes with their work on behalf of Impact 100 Chicago. In other words, all members must make sure that they do not have a conflict of interest when they are participating in Impact 100 Chicago work or business. A potential conflict of interest can arise in situations when a member, or someone in a member’s immediate family, would personally gain, either financially or professionally, from an action taken by Impact 100 Chicago. For example, if an Impact 100 Chicago member would receive a job or a business contract if a certain Exempt Organization receives an Impact 100 Chicago grant, then that member has a potential conflict of interest. Serving on the Board of Directors of an Exempt Organization that has applied for, or may apply for, an Impact 100 grant, does create a conflict of interest.

If a member has a conflict of interest with any Exempt Organization, that member will not be allowed to join the focus area committee that would evaluate and/or select that Exempt Organization to become a grant finalist of Impact 100 Chicago. However, the Impact 100 Chicago member would be allowed to join any other focus area committee.

If there is a conflict of interest, it is the member’s obligation to immediately notify the Board in writing of such conflict. Prior to participating on a focus area committee, members will be required to complete an Impact 100 Chicago Conflict of Interest statement.

I have read and understand the Impact 100 Chicago Conflict of Interest statement. Listed below are all Exempt Organizations in the greater Chicago area (Cook, Kane, Will, Lake, DuPage and McHenry counties) in which I, or a family member, have a personal or professional role that may constitute a conflict of interest:
